This symposium will bring together health professionals working with children and young people at end of life and supporting their families/whanau.

It will offer an opportunity to hear from policy makers and clinicians about the unique nature of working in this specialist area and provide an opportunity for those in the Wellington area to network across the hospital and community health services.

The Programme will include:

- Current National Overview: WAYNE NAYLOR, Palliative Care Council of New Zealand
  Paediatric Palliative Care Health Needs Assessment;

- Keynote: DR ROSS DRAKE, Palliative Care Paediatrician, Starship Hospital, Auckland;

- The Wellington Scene: DR ARNO EBNER, Paediatrician, Wellington Hospital;

- Working Collaboratively - HELEN ORR (Community Paediatric Nurse) and WENDIE AYLEY (Palliative Care Coordinator, Mary Potter Hospice); & DR LINDSAY TANNE, Te Omanga Hospice

- Advanced Care Planning; Pain & Symptom Management: KAREN BYCROFT, Starship Hospital;

- Working With Children and Young People: TRICIA HENDRY, Skylight & JESS JAMIESON, Starship Children’s Hospital;

- Panel: What is the challenge for the future? DR BRIAN ENSOR, DR ROSS DRAKE, DR LINDSAY TANNE and DR ARNO EBNER
